

Forest School Leadership Programme Level 3 Qualification

Equipping you to be a Forest School Leader

Learning is a mix of tutor input & self-study and structured in five units:

- * Learning and development at Forest School
- * Delivering a Forest School programme
- * Practical skills for Forest School
- * Woodland environment at Forest School
- * Planning a Forest School programme

Spring Training 2015:

Crann Og,
Derrymore, Drummin,
Gort, Co. Galway, Ireland

March 30, 31 April 1,2
July 9,10,11,12 inclusive

Cost: €900.00 + first aid training if necessary

Accredited by the Open College Network and recognised by the Forest School Trainers Network it is considered essential for those wishing to lead Forest School. On successful completion of the course, students will be awarded: OCN Forest School Programme Leadership Qualification

In that time nature seeped into our blood stream changing the course of our lives and, the way we work and interact with

Everything held a relevance that kept us interested and motivated us to explore further for

The course is appropriate for anyone 21 or over with at least Level 2 in youth work, childcare or teaching or at least 2 years' experience working with children. You will need to hold a current Garda Vetting and to hold or acquire a 16 hour outdoor paediatric first aid certificate.

The training runs over 8 days and includes and at least 110 hours of self-study over approximately 9 months. In this time you will...

- plan and deliver a six week Forest School programme with a group of children that includes practical activities based on reflective assessment
- complete a practical workbook supporting the delivery and development of Forest School
- create other materials demonstrating your understanding of both learning theory and woodland environments

Find out more: email: forestschool@huathe.co.uk or call Leanne (Irish contact): 0852710443

Students are eligible for a year's FREE MEMBERSHIP of the Forest School Association

